Subject to the provisions of applicable law, any note, mortgage, evidence of indebtedness, contract, conveyance, or other instrument in writing and any assignment or endorsement thereof executed or entered into between the BID and any other person, when signed by any one of the President, the Vice President, the Secretary, or the Treasurer of the corporation shall be valid and binding on the corporation in the absence of actual knowledge on the part of the other person that the signing officer had no authority to execute the same. Any such instruments may be signed by any other person or persons, and in the manner, time to time determined by the Board. Unless so authorized by the Board, no officer, agent, or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or amount.

10.3 Construction and Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions contained in the General Provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law and the California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law shall govern the construction of these Bylaws. Without limiting the generality of the above, the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter, the singular number includes the plural, the plural number includes the singular, and the term "person" includes both a corporation and a natural person.

10.4 Amendments. These Bylaws may be amended or altered by a majority vote of the Board or by approval of the Members by written ballot or at a meeting, provided notice of the meeting includes the proposal for amendment. Any proposed amendments or alterations shall be submitted by the Board to the Members at least ten days in advance of the meeting at which they are to be acted upon. An amendment to change the minimum or maximum number of Directors may only be adopted by approval of the Members. For purposes of this Section 10.4, "approval of the Members" means approved or ratified by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes represented and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present (which affirmative votes also constitute a majority of the required quorum) or by written ballot in conformity with Section 7513 of the California Corporations Code
